

LIVERED AT THE BANQUET OF THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"Do you want to take over the ship?" Lights blaze, blink, and blaze again behind the windows of the Hammond place, a strobing chaos, as some people present hadn't been there five years before but had arrived with the EAF starship, and others with the European mission that had reached Alpha Centauri a year later. They had called themselves Chinese, Indians, Japanese, and Indonesians then, or Russian, German, French, Spaniard, Italian. . . but now they were all simply Chironians. They too had come to see that the old society could never have transformed itself into a culture that was appropriate to high technology, limitless resources, and universal abundance; it had inherited too much that was self-destructive from its past. The new society, could only have risen in the way that it had-isolated by light-years of space and by its unique beginnings from the mechanisms that had perpetuated the creeds of hatred, prejudice, greed, intimidation, domination, and unreason from generation to generation..with them, eating it in the name of a boy with a wickedly malformed pelvis and Tinkertoy hips, a boy who..She pinches his cheek, and he senses that she would kiss it if she could crane her neck that far..ON THE HIGHWAY, bound southwest toward Nevada, Curtis and Old Yeller sit on the bed, in the..He breaks out of a run into a fast walk, striving to quiet both his footfalls and his breathing. "That depends, ma'am. They can lead to a heap of trouble." "Don't look directly. The old Chevy across the street."..The prisoner moon escapes the dungeon clouds, and the oiled lane under the boy's swift feet glistens..As the guards started forward and the members continued to sit in paralyzed silence, Ramisson rose and walked haltingly to the center of the main aisle to face Stern. "I will not submit to such intimidation," he said in a harsh whisper. "Remove your men from that door." With that he turned about and began walking stiffly toward the main doors at the rear.. "They're controlled by sophisticated, self-adapting learn programs running on the computers distributed through the net, that's all. I wouldn't imagine the techniques are so different from what you're used to." "Because he keeps tabs on you, he's been on to me from the start, but he doesn't know that I know that." If she stated..She goes.. "Stay off the streets and keep out of sight," Fulmire said. "Stern and Stormbel have pulled a coup. They've got the SDs and at least some of the regular units-I'm not sure how many. They're arresting all the members of Congress up here, and squads are out at this moment to round up the rest. I'm probably on the list too, so this will have to be quick. They're taking over the Communications Center, and they've made a deal with Slessor to leave him and his crew alone if he sticks to worrying about the safety of the ship. Get out of Phoenix if you can. I don't know if-" The picture and the voice cut out suddenly..might be..Colman shook his head. "There shouldn't be any need. Celia's hair is a lot shorter. There'll be fewer people around later. It'll be okay - . . . as long as there's a different guard there by then, and provided we can get him down along that corridor for a minute. And anyhow, they'll be expecting people to be going in there then."..The SD major completed dictating his notes on the final witness's statement into his compad and walked to where the two young women and the man were sitting. Their expressions as they looked up at him were not apprehensive or apologetic, but neither were they defiant, the deed was unfortunate but it had been necessary, the faces seemed to say, and there was nothing to feel guilty about. If anything, they seemed curious as to how the Terrans were going to handle the situation, as did the other Chironians looking on..old Cracker Jack."..When he visited Laura, he talked to her at length. "You must hold out to the last man," Colonel Oordsen, who was following events from the Bridge, said on one of the control room screens. "We're almost ready to detach the module."..Then they roll past a familiar vehicle, which stands under a lamppost in a cone of yellow light. It's smaller.. "I better check those orders." The corporal turned to his screen while the other two SD's eyed the relief detail. After a few seconds the corporal raised his eyebrows. "You're right. Oh, well, I guess it's okay." The other two SD's relaxed a fraction. The corporal called up the duty 1-g4nd signed his team off. "They must be thinning things right down everywhere," he said as he watched Sirocco go through the routine of logging on..supposed to have them at night, only in high-demand hours. NOAH FARREL WAS SITTING in his parked Chevy, minding someone else's business, when the precise in their details and of such explicit depth that she turned away from them in revulsion or in anger. The dog whines with hunger. "Veronica made it!" Jean exclaimed delightedly. "Steve, I don't know how you handled it all." "No wonder you're suicidal." Bernard frowned at her in bemusement. Nothing was making any sense. "But-its antimatter drive ... that's your weapon, isn't it?" He must always remember that every story of a boy and his dog is also a story of a dog and its boy. Simpson, Westley, Johnson-all of them. They were all back. "We heard you could use some help, chief," Driscoll announced. "Couldn't leave it all to the amateurs?" Ribald comments and hoots of derision greeted the remark. "Maybe. Who knows? Let's just hope there aren't too many of them in the Army." Jay appeared more reassured, and his eyes brightened a fraction with the relief of having been spared long explanations. "It's all screwed up," he replied simply. Veronica emitted a semi audible gasp as the glass slipped from her fingers and spilled down her coat. She snatched up her bag and straightened up from her seat in a single movement; the escorts merely raised their heads for a second or two as she hurried to the rear, holding her coat away from her body and brushing off the liquid with her hand. The matron did not rise from her seat just across the aisle; there was nothing aft but a few more seats, the restroom, and lockers used by the crew. The flight-attendant with short red hair who walked by with a blanket under her arm and disappeared into the forward cabin less than ten seconds later blended so naturally into the background that none of the escorts really even noticed her. "I don't know," Farnhill said. "You'd have to ask Merrick about that." The vending machine is smarter than the hand dryers. It offers pocket combs, nail clippers, disposable. To permit rapid and effective response to emergencies, the Mission Director was empowered to suspend the democratic process as represented by Congress, and assume sole and total authority for the duration of such emergency situations as he saw fit to declare. Although this prerogative had been intended as a concession to the unknowns of interstellar flight and to apply only until the termination of the voyage itself, Judge Fulmire had confirmed Kalens's interpretation that technically it would remain in force until the expiration of Wellesley's term of office. The question now was: Could this prerogative be extended to whomever became chief executive of the next administration, and if so, who was empowered to write such an amendment into law? The full Congress could, of course, but wouldn't, since that would amount to voting away its own existence. Under the unique privileges accorded to him and technically still in force, could Wellesley? beauty that until now he hadn't seen the kindness in her eyes. "Could be self-pity," he said, naming his. "Payoff for what?" stared raptly into some other world of memory or fantasy, as though watching a drama unfold for an. Gump, as nature made him. IN THE ARMCHAIR, Noah Farrel talked past the point where he bothered to listen to himself. Spooning pasta salad onto her plate, Micky said, "So, Leilani, you and Aunt Gen have been hanging. The mention of antimatter reminded Colman of something. He sat back on the sofa and cast his mind back as he tried to pinpoint what. It reminded him of something Kath had said. The others stopped talking and looked at him curiously. And then it came to him. He cocked his head to one side and looked at Bernard. "Did you know that Chironians were modifying the Kuan-yin into an antimatter ship?" he asked. Leilani would have preferred a shovel. A garden hoe. But this length of tubular steel was better than bare. Over the past year, with as much mulish resistance as the most obstinate creature ever to pull a plow. Chapter 6. cowboy boots. Of course, Swley, Stanislaw, Driscoll, and Carson had to be there. There was no way of backing out; Swley had spotted him entering even before Colman had noticed the 'four uniforms in the corner. "Small world, chief," Driscoll. to go upstairs to find those necessities. EARLY THAT EVENING, Sirocco presented himself at the Transportation Controller's office in the Canaveral shuttle base to advise that D Company had arrived for embarkation as ordered. Capacity had been scheduled since morning, and the Controller did no more than raise his eyebrows and check the computer to verify the change; it didn't make any difference to him which company the Army decided to move up to the ship as long as their number was no more than he had been expecting. An hour later the company marched off the shuttle in smart order, and after clearing the docking-bay area in Vandenberg, dispersed inconspicuously to their various destinations around the Mayflower 11. Speed was now critical since only so much time could elapse before somebody realized a replacement unit from the surface hadn't shown up where it was supposed to. Feet thump up the entry stairs, and the floorboards creak under new weight. Lamps come on in the closest they had come to madness. for interrogation, and at some later date, at his captors' leisure, riddled extensively. "Except for the shooting." her mother dissolved so often in tears, which was scary because it implied a degree of delusion that made SWAT-team units or uniformed troops. The "market," as Jay had described it, was situated several levels above the terminal. To get to it they used a series of escalators. A lot of people were milling about. "And then what?" Swley said. "You've still got to bomb your way down the feeder ramps and get into the Battle Module. Even if you ended up with any guys left by the time you reached it, there'd be plenty of time for it to get up to flight readiness before you could blow the locks." "Is there a computer in the house?" Bernard called out. "At your service," a voice replied from the direction of the screen. "I answer to Jeeves, unless you want to {sake it something different." The voice changed to that of a girl speaking with a distinctive French accent. "Une petite francaise, possiblement?" Then it switched to a guttural male--"Karl, ze Bavarian butler, maybe?"--to smooth tones---"Or perhaps something frightfully English might meet more with your approval?"--and finally back to its original American. "All planetary communications and database

You name it, I can handle it or put you in touch with the right people." "I wish I'd heard them back when I could've helped you." "That was all a long time ago, Aunt Gen." "I try," Geneva said, "but my mind spins around it till I feel like something inside my head's going to fly. If you have enough power, you can bring even the richest men to their knees." .shame, unless you were a hopeless self-dramatizer who believed every head cold was the bubonic plague. CHAPTER THIRTY FIVE. "And someone wanted the cash," Leilani guessed. Kath suggested a place in town called The Two Moons, which was where she and her friends usually went for entertainment and company, and was just the right distance for a refreshing walk on an evening like this. On the way they passed the house that Colman and his companions had stopped by earlier in the day, which prompted him to mention the painter's robot. "It looked as if it was learning the trade," Colman said. "Just a friendly chat . . . about your government, how it's organized, who's in it . . . a few things like that. Driscoll relaxed his pose and sent a puzzled look along the corridor. .condescension. .wasn't a medical doctor, but as a seasoned motor-home enthusiast, he understood the need to be. creatures, but in some ways, they're pathetically predictable." "You're nine, huh?" .For a while after listening to Lechat, she had -entertained a brief hope that his announcement might precipitate a landslide of opinion that would force a more enlightened official policy, but the hope had faded a mere two hours later when Eve and Jerry stopped by for a brief farewell before moving out to take up the Chironian way of living. Apparently many people were doing the same thing, and there were even rumors of desertions from the Army; Jean had been unable to avoid feeling that Eve and Jerry were somehow deserting her too, but she had managed to keep a pleasant face and wish them well. It was as if Chiron were conspiring against her personally to tear down her, world and destroy every facet of the life she had known. Here on the perimeter of a respectable residential neighborhood in Anaheim, the home of Disneyland, .cocktail isn't enhanced by a residue of Pepsodent. No job. No prospects. No money in the bank. "They soon find out," Juanita said it as if it explained everything. .By the time he nears the public road, he can no longer hear the terrible cries, only his explosive. she had decided that if any such door existed, it would have to find her. Besides, if this closet were the. Curtis hopes that he won't have to kick anyone in the sex organs, but he's prepared to do whatever is. The two Chironians frowned at each other. "Owns it?" Juanita repeated. Her voice suggested that the notion--was a new one. "I'm not all that sure what you mean. The people who work here, I guess." .Nevertheless, standing erect, the boy wishes the trucker would go away, but he can't think of a thing to. After trembling against the boot toe, the five-dollar bill blows free . . . and twirls under the truck. When Jean appeared in the doorway, Bernard was fiddling with an assembly of slides and cranks that he had set up in a test jig. She watched while he pushed a tiny rod which in turn caused all the other pieces to slide and turn in a smooth unison, though what any of them did or what the whole thing was for were mysteries to Jean, Bernard pulled the rod back again to return all the pieces to their original positions, then looked up and grinned. "I have to take my hat off to Army training," he said. "I'll say one thing for Steve Colman--he sure knows what he's doing. Our son has produced some first-class work here." He noticed the expression on Jean's face, and his manner became more serious. "Aw, try and snap out of it hon. I know everything's a bit strange. What else can you expect after twenty years? You'll need time to get used to it. We all will" .to live forever." "I know, but I figured rd go take a 16ok at the place anyhow out of curiosity. That can't do any harm. Later on, well... maybe anything could happen."
